LILY HAIR OIL
 The Marvelous Hair Remedy which prevents
HAIR FALLING OUT.
 FOR SALE BY
C. W. MACFARLANE,
 Sole Agent, Honolulu.
 Neat pamphlet free on application. P. O. Box 292, Telephone 28.

HONOLULU, April 21, 1896.
 Mr. C. W. MACFARLANE:—It affords me pleasure to recommend, to any one whose hair is falling out, the use of DR. POTTIE'S HAIR OIL. My hair was coming out at such a rate as led me to believe that I would soon become bald. After using the oil for five weeks this ceased entirely; none whatever is now falling out. I consider it the best and only worthy remedy for this trouble and also recommend it as a stimulant to new growth.
 Yours truly,
J. B. DANIELS.

How to Prepare Filled Bread.

Take a loaf of freshly baked bread while it is still warm and rather underdone, and pull the inside out of it in irregular shaped pieces about the size of an egg. Put these in a good oven and bake a delicate brown. They are crisp and full of flavor and make a delightful combination with cheese and tender stalks of celery, or the white inner leaves of lettuce, in which case the bread may be served with the salad.

The Darnier Glorified.

The darnier is one of many prosaic articles which have become luxuriant at the silversmith's hands. The up to date darnier consists of a fine china egg with a long silver handle.

Fashion Fads and Fancies.

Several colors in one costume appear to be the rule.

Well dressed women are wearing more jewelry than they have in many years.

A special feature of the summer fabrics is the transparent effect.

The belt buckles and clasps enameled in dull reds, blues and greens defy description.

Leather belts are embroidered with gold and silver beads, and white kid belts, set with blue enamel traced with gold, are the latest fancy.

Tulle and chiffon, with a satin edge, are sold by the hundred yards for neck ruffles and frillings on capes, parasols and gowns.

Rococo enameled hairpins, set with jewels, assist in modern hairdressing.

Vandyke collars of coral and white batiste, trimmed with lace and insertion, are made to wear over thin summer gowns.

Belt buckles and cuff buttons, for shirt waists, simulate in their enamel decorations the coats of arms or flags of the different nations or the insignia of the army or navy.

Chatelaine bags of monkey skin, with rose gilding clasps, have numerous adherents.

How to Make a Nice Summer Drink.

Choose a two quart jug, preferably of glass, and squeeze into it the juice of 2 lemons and an orange. Stand upright in the jug 2 strips of cucumber peel, cut lengthwise, then fill to two-thirds the depth with cracked ice. Pour claret over the whole to within one-fourth of the top, and at the moment of serving fill to the brim with well charged vichy.

Uncertainties and a Certainty.

The attention of the public is now fully occupied and diverted in the consideration and discussion of several important current and prospective happenings. Annexation, as yet unsecured, Reciprocity threatened; the coming of the Naniwa, and her mission after arrival; the outcome of the war between Greece and Turkey and, whether or no, all Europe will eventually become involved; the settlement of the quarantine squabble—are all themes of much conjecture and uncertainty, and while opinions are freely offered, none can accurately foretell the outcome of any of these matters. Nevertheless, it is becoming more apparent, as each day passes, that Buffalo and Hoffbrau are the favorite brews, and it is gratifying that assurance is given that regular shipments of these wholesome and strengthening beverages can be depended upon, and that they will, as heretofore, be dispensed at the Royal, Pacific and Cosmopolitan Saloons, and that the interchangeable check system is an established fact.

Its pure—that's sure—Mott's Golden Russett Cider at the Criterion Saloon.

If you are interested in the subject of enlarged portraits, it would be worth your while to see the samples at King Bros. at prices ranging from $5.00 to $10.00 frames and all. They can't be beat.

Kroeger Pianos, sweetest in tone, Jas. W. Bergstrom, sole agent, cash or installments. Warerooms at G. West's, Masonic Temple. Office at Thrum's Book Store. Tuning and repairing. Telephone 347.

Printed ducks are just as good, if not better than anything else for boys' shirt waists. They wash and wear well, two very important considerations. Kerr has them in a large variety of patterns at eight yards for one dollar.

We don't expect you to give us the preference if what we have to sell is inferior or our prices higher than our rivals, but when we offer a superior article for less money, you do yourself a wrong by not looking into the matter. Call and see our samples of portrait work. King Bros., 110 Hotel street.
